Sen. Toy to hold public hearings on delayed tax refunds

- What: Town hall meetings to discuss delays in tax refund processing
- Who: Sen. Laura Toy, R-Livonia, and individuals affected by tax refund delays and other concerned citizens
- When/Where: Tuesday, Aug. 24
- 11 a.m. Garden City Maplewood Center – Maple Room
31735 Maplewood St.
- 2:30 p.m. Livonia Senior Center – South Activity Room
15218 Farmington Road
- Briefing: Many Michigan senior citizens and others who filed paper income tax returns are still waiting for their refunds. As of this month, nearly 140,000 tax returns are still outstanding. The public is invited to two town hall meetings to address these delays and discuss possible solutions. For more information contact Toy's office at (517) 373-1707.
